In Monday's match at home the Outlaws fought the wind the entire day and in the end fell 3-5 to The Dalles. Coach Vince Grace was out of town and girls Coach Bruce Fenn stepped in as coach.

Dominic Pulver (No. 1 singles) started off slow, but managed to defeat Jack McCallister 3-6, 6-2, 10-2 (tiebreaker).

Fenn said, "Pulver has a big, booming first serve, and once he handled the wind there was nothing McCallister could do. Pulver has a big-hitting forehand that his opponent cannot handle. If you can control hard hitting and be consistent, that is a winning combination."

Finn Stancliff, at No. 3 singles, showed good shots at the net and volleyed balls away from Jesus Chavez to win in two straight sets with scores of 6-4, 6-3.

"Finn's moving to the net confused Chavez and made it difficult for him to get the ball past him," said Fenn. "Going to the net put more pressure on Chavez."

Joseph Derksen (No. 4 singles) was able to return the ball in the gusty wind and came out on top 7-5, 6-3, against Dante Kim.

Fenn said, "Derksen had a fluid, easy forehand and he was more confident keeping the ball in play."

Fenn noted that Sisters' doubles teams of Dylan Rundle and Toban Bionda (No. 1 doubles) and Weston Dean and Liam Hubble (No. 2 doubles) tried their best, but still need more practice to log a win. He added that tennis is a game of repetition and being aware of how to keep the ball in play.

"In doubles your position on the court is critical to your success," said Fenn. "The doubles teams are progressing, but just need more experience in positioning on the court working as a team."

On Saturday, the No. 1 and No. 2 singles and doubles teams participated in an eight-team event at Madras High School. Teams including Sisters, Madras, Crook County, Stayton, Pendleton, Baker, Estacada, and Henley. Sisters finished third in the overall team event, despite the fact they were the youngest team in attendance.

Each player from Sisters played either seven singles or doubles games against all seven schools for a total of 49 games.

Pulver won 36 of the 49 games and took first place at the No. 1 singles spot. Pulver's serve and big forehand were on fire, which led him to the single's title.

Jude Parzybok (No. 2 singles) won 35 of his 49 games played, and his net volleys and beautiful ground strokes carried him to his second-place finish.

Jack Murray and Will McDonnell (No. 1 doubles) won 17 of 49 games and finished sixth. The duo had never played doubles together, but they gelled and took sixth place against an older, more seasoned No. 1 doubles team. The games they did lose usually went to deuce in the no-ad event.

Stancliff and Derksen won 22 of 49 games. The pair exhibited their athleticism and overall tennis skills, and their determination was invaluable in their fifth-place finish. Stancliff and Derksen also took their opponents to numerous deuce games.

Greg Everson, long-time assistant coach, said, "The kids played from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., and it was a long, exhausting, yet highly competitive day! We're looking ahead to more tennis excitement as the boys keep improving throughout the season."

The Outlaws were scheduled to play Madras on Tuesday, April 9. On Thursday they will travel to Prineville for a match against the Cowboys.

up and played at the No. 2 spot and recorded a 6-0, 6-1, win over Alexia Diaz. Fenn noted that Wyland played her athletic, consistent game and there was no doubt she was the better player.

"Stepping into No. 2 singles with only one year of tennis behind her (Wyland) is scary, but she was a trooper," said Fenn.

Rylie Bick (No. 3 singles) tallied a 6-2, 6-1, win over Aimee Rodriguez-Sanchez.

"Rylie is in the same mindset as the rest of the singles players with some experience," said Fenn. "She understands consistency wins matches. Rylie has a consistent forehand and she can get to most shots. She waits for her opponent to miss."

The Outlaws also won three of their doubles matches.

Leah O'Hern and Sophie Rush (No. 1) defeated Jessica Huizar-Perez and Ari Chavez-Rodriguez. The duo dropped the first set 2-6 in the strong wind, but came back and took the second set 6-2. They got tough in the tiebreak and won 10-7 on a big serve by Rush.

"Leah and Sophie have a new nick name, 'The Tiebreak Queens,'" said Fenn. "Out of seven matches played they have won four matches with tiebreakers. That's considered an overtime scenario. Leah is the steady one and Rush is the power hitter. Both girls can put the ball away at the net and handle pace as well."

Ava Riehle and Molly Greaney (No. 3) were down in both the first and second sets but came back and defeated Valerie Villa and Victoria Gonzalez 6-4, 6-4, in a close match.

"Ava and Molly stayed positive and helped each other," said Fenn.

Jessica Stahn and Caitlin Carter (No. 4) rounded out the wins for Sisters with a 7-5, 6-2, victory over Amber Foley and Ava Anderson.

"Jessica and Caitlin were active, and athletic as they hustled to get the win," said Fenn. "They won today because they were more consistent, and stronger and faster than The Dalles team."

Fenn said, "I feel confident that with more consistent practice and the whole team together that we can make another push to win the District Championship again with Kizziar leading the way."

The Lady Outlaws have a busy week ahead. They are scheduled to play at Madras on Tuesday, April 9, and then will play at home on Thursday against Crook County. They will wrap up their week at the Bend Oregon Invitational held at Caldera High School on Friday and Saturday where 22 teams from around the state will be in attendance.

ROY: Man was arrested after incidents at homeless camps

in the adjacent Forest Service land. Deputies arrived quickly in the area, and identified the man in question as Dana Roy. Deputies had an initial contact with Roy, and then released him after they determined there was no probable cause for an arrest at that time.

Deputies then conducted additional interviews at some homeless camps near the area, and found that Roy had approached a man at his camp. Roy pointed what appeared to be a handgun, and later brandished a knife at this man and ordered him to give him two backpacks and his sleeping bag, which the man did. Roy took those items and then went to another camp and cut a tarp and a tent, and ransacked the camp. Deputies searched the area and recovered the two stolen backpacks and the sleeping bag, which had been abandoned by Roy in the forest. Deputies also found the camp which had been damaged by Roy.

Based upon this information, deputies recontacted Roy, who was still in the area and placed him in custody without incident. Roy was required to appear in Deschutes County Circuit Court for his sentencing and was represented by a public defender.
