Whychus Overlook project starts next week

The Forest Service is partnering with Sisters Trails Alliance to make the Whychus Creek Overlook on the Sisters Ranger District more accessible.

The top rail of the Whychus Creek Overlook wall will be removed, and two viewing portals with security cables will be created to improve accessibility. The modifications will provide better views of the creek and mountains for visitors with disabilities.

The modification project will begin May 6 and is expected to conclude May 9.

The Whychus Creek Overlook will be closed for public safety on May 6. The Whychus Creek Overlook and south side of the Whychus Creek Overlook Trail will be closed from May 7-9 while work is ongoing. The north side of the Whychus Creek Overlook Trail, Whychus Draw Trail, and access to Whychus Creek will remain open May 7-9. Trail closure signs will be posted at the trailhead and along the trail to identify the closures.

Further construction may continue past May 9, but trail and area closures aren't anticipated.

Heavy equipment will be used to complete the project and transport materials to the worksite. The public should use caution when recreating in the area.

LETTERS

from the horrific 2020 Almeda Fire which destroyed one-third of Talent's homes and businesses. Before her contract ended, Jamie was asked to stay on. AI also missed an event in which Jamie was honored with a beautiful award from the city staff and police of Talent.

I do not know about you, but I find it rather humorous to depend on the "perceptivity" of artificial intelligence to assess the quality of an individual based on a search for negative spin found on the internet. Poor little AI application doesn't know that continuous repetition on social or mainstream media does not make it so. It doesn't know a lie travels faster than truth. ## Downsize and donate to Kiwanis

To the Editor:

It's almost time for the annual Kiwanis Antique, Collectibles & Jewelry Sale, which takes place Saturday, May 25, at the Sisters Fire Hall.

We are now in the process of collecting that furniture and "good old things" that have made the sale a successful fundraiser in past years. So, if you're downsizing or just want to donate older furniture or collectibles in good condition, please call. Please consider If it's larger than two people can manage, we can't take the item.

The Kiwanis Club of Sisters is, and always has been, thankful for all the support the community has given over the years. The funds raised have helped the youth of our community through scholarships and numerous youth programs.

So, if you're willing to help, please call...
